Commodore's Comments...

Ahoy Me Hearties!

Had another fun-filled meeting at Club Pagodas, and lots was discussed. We learned that new photos have been posted on the NBYC Facebook page by our VC Terry Metcalf, and everyone can be adding their favorite NBYC photos to this page as well. We welcomed new members Ned Westerland of Shalimar and Joe & Sable Roesch of Darien, CT. Lori Kadziolka now has a bunch of new 25th Anniversary NBYC t-shirts, tanks, hats, and visors in all the best colors. And Steve Rudzki, the Marine Advisor, let us know that if you're interested in visiting Cuba by boat, you are now able to buy insurance to cover your boat while cruising those waters!

Thank you John and Melissa Myran for opening your beautiful home to all of us crazy members for the annual NBYC Butt Roast last weekend. The location was perfect, situated on the corner of a lovely canal in Villa Venyce with plenty of shade trees and a delightful breeze. In fact, everyone was so comfortable, nobody even jumped into their impressive swimming pool! And thanks also to Chuck Howard and crew, (sorry that I can't remember all who woke at the crack of 4am to help, although I know Ken Rudzki managed to drag himself out after the promise of a Bloody Mary...). The food was delicious, and after auctioning off the butts, (thanks Steve Theis for being a great auctioneer) the Club ended up paying a whopping $31 total for this fun and food-filled event. Great job to everyone involved! And I personally must thank the Conners for allowing the Commodore to jump aboard their Aquaholic motor yacht to get to the event. Turns out powerboats aren't really much faster than sailboats.... At least if they're supposed to have two engines and one of them isn't working. 🙄

Your commodore will be joining her hubby in Exuma, Bahamas, for a bit of summer fun, so I will leave the next meeting, June 6, in the capable hands of the VC Terry. Please mark your calendars and show her your support by attending our interesting, educational, and thirst-quenching meeting.

Upcoming events:

June 6: NBYC Meeting - 7:30pm at Club Pagodas

June 17: Gallery Night, Downtown Pensacola, (Palafox Marina)

June 18: Pirate's Cove, Alabama, (Ken and Cheryl sponsor)

July 1: All-Call at Juana's dock for the Juana's/Sailors' Grill's 27th Anniversary party

The weather doesn't get much better than this, here in our beautiful island paradise, so there's no excuse to NOT get your selves slathered up in sunscreen, fill up your coolers, and get out on that beautiful water!!!

Until the next time... Fair Winds and Following Seas,

Commodore Juana
