Commodore's Comments...

O'Hoy!

Well, winter is finally upon us, and we're only a couple weeks away from our NBYC big Christmas dinner party gala event where we welcome in our new 2017 Commodore. Hard to believe this year has cruised by so quickly!? It really has been fun, and I appreciate all the support I've gotten from everyone involved. This upcoming December 5 meeting we will vote in the new officers. Also, Storekeeper Lori will be there with some NBYC wear, which makes great Christmas gifts! Don't miss this meeting!

Steve and I had a fantastic time at Fort McRee for the Blue Angels show last weekend, anchored with a ton of other boats, (though very few NBYC vessels attended, unfortunately. Ken and Cheryl may have been the only other NBYC boat there?). The weather was spectacular, and once again, the Blues put on another incredible show. Just sorry we couldn't share our mimosas with any of you....

As I mentioned earlier, the Christmas party is almost upon us. The cost to card-carrying members is $15 a head, (NBYC supplements an additional $10). Guests will be charged $30. Buy your tickets by December 5 for this cheaper rate. Anyone showing up at the door the night-of will be charged an additional $10 per head, (as long as we're not at the room limit already). This is to motivate you to pay early so we can get a clear head-count for the chef and utilize our NBYC funds to their fullest. This year's amazingly delicious menu will be:

Appetizers... 5-6pm

- Bacon wrapped scallops
- Spinach dip with pita
- Specialty cheese tray and crackers

Dinner... 6-7pm

- Grilled chicken skewers
- Sautéed shrimp
- Beef brisket
- Baked hash brown potatoes with red quinoa, spinach casserole
- Grilled veggies
- Mixed salad and roll with butter

Dessert

- Macarons and mini brownies

Plus 2 drink tickets per person - domestic beer and house wine

We're also trying to come up with some other entertaining activities. There will not be a band again this year, as most like the idea of piped-in holiday music so we can all talk and hear. You definitely do NOT want to miss this event. The room capacity is 130, so be sure to make your reservations SOON to guarantee your spot. Plan to pay Purser Linda at the next meeting, (the deadline for the cheap rate) or send checks to:

Sail on....
